New event slithers into the Brisbane Showgrounds

Enthusiasts of all things scaly and slithering will be heading to the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend for the Queensland Reptile Exhibition.

A den of slithering snakes, majestic lizards and much more will be gracing John Reid Pavilion in the Brisbane Showgrounds from Saturday 2 to Sunday 3 March.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said upon entering the Pavilion, reptile enthusiasts will be treated to jaw-dropping displays, interactive exhibits and mind-blowing demonstrations.

“In addition, reptile experts will be delivering educational talks and workshops, sharing many fascinating insights into these incredible creatures,” Mr Coyle said.

“Visitors will even be able to pose for photos with a newfound scaly friend including photogenic pythons and bearded dragons.”

The 2024 Queensland Reptile Exhibition will cater for all ages with a dedicated children's area including face-painting, games and an opportunity to hold a reptile while under expert supervision.

Visitors can also enjoy some retail therapy with a wide range of reptile-themed merchandise, accessories, supplies and terrariums – everything required to create the perfect reptile haven at home.

Tickets to the event are $20 per person for adults, $5 for children aged 6-15 years or $30 for a family (2 adults, 2 children). Tickets are available at the door or via Eventbrite. The event runs from 9am to 5pm on Saturday 2 March and Sunday 3 March.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au.
