All aboard! Train lovers celebrate 45th annual train show

Queensland's largest model train show will take over the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend for its 45th annual show.

More than 6,000 people are expected to attend The Brisbane Model Train Show which will feature model trains of all types and sizes.

Modelling Groups, Traders and Heritage Organisations from both Queensland and across the nation will showcase a wide range of railway models in all shapes and sizes, promising an exciting and memorable day for all attendees.

This includes various layouts of railway displays, modelling products, demonstrations of wagon building assembly activations and more.

There will also be a range of food available including Fritz Weiner's, Bills Burgers and Teresa's coffee outlet.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said it's wonderful for this long-standing event to return to the precinct.

"This is the tenth time that this event has been held at the Brisbane Showgrounds and we're thrilled to have it back as they celebrate their 45th Show," he said.

"We look forward to welcoming thousands of train enthusiasts both young and young at heart to the Showgrounds to enjoy the displays."

The Brisbane Model Train Show will be held this Saturday and Sunday (May 6 - 7) opening 9am – 5pm Saturday and 9am – 4pm Sunday at the Exhibition Building at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

Entry is $17.00 Adults (18+), $12.00 Concession & Full-time Students (16+) and kids under 16 free (with paying adult).

Tickets are only available for purchase at the door using both cash and EFTPOS.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au.
